Paul Chavez Is Our Teacher Advocate of the Year

Congratulations to Paul Chavez (SHS) who was named the 2019 Blanche Chester Teacher Advocate of the Year. Past Recipient Iva Chen-Kang honored Paul at Council Tuesday, May 21.

Paul has been a member of the Association for 23 years. He has been a member of the Bargaining Team since 2013 where he serves as a specialist on high school and special education needs. Paul was Vice President of the Association in 2016-2017. He also served as Director of Support Staff in 2015-2016.

The Blanche Chester Teacher Advocate Award is for outstanding work at the site level. Paul’s resume includes being a Schurr High School Building Rep since 2003. He has also been Faculty Club Chairperson since 2008 in addition to serving on the Faculty Steering Committee, School Site Council, and the Site In-Service Committee.
