

Bargaining Update

Bargaining Continues October 2 & 3

The Board and the Association will meet to discuss issues concerning student standardized tests in relation to Bargaining Unit members' working conditions. This is the final item expected to be agreed upon prior to the Executive Committee taking the package to ratification.

Need I Complete All My Planning At My School Site?

The Contract refers to three types of days: Board days, professional days and instructional days.

*The professional day is the Board Day except for official meetings, instructional times and 7 minutes prior to the beginning of school. Teachers need not be on campus during the Professional Day.

*The Board Day for K-12 teachers is 7 hours and 15 minutes. The District determines the beginning time for each site. The Board Day for Headstart teachers is 5/6 that of K-12 teachers. Adult Education Teachers do not have a Board Day.

*The instructional day is the time when teachers are actually with students.
