RE: COUNCIL MEETING TUESDAY, MARCH 17 AT 3:30 P.M.
LA MERCED INTERMEDIATE LIBRARY

1. Each site is participating in Pink Friday activities this week. Organizing Committee Chairpersons CeCe Ramirez (LMI) and Horacio Perez (BGI) have contacted Faculty Club Chairpersons and Building Reps at each site to confirm plans. The Pink Friday Stand Up For Schools plans are posted on Montebelloteachers.org and PinkFriday09.org. Remember to wear pink Friday, March 13 and send pictures via Montebelloteachers.org.
2. At this time no Reduction in Force (RIF) lay-off notices have been authorized by the Board of Education. President Dianne GarciaStevens continues to monitor the situation through the end of this week.
3. As of today, 105 Bargaining Unit members have applied for the PARS retirement incentive program. The target is 119 retirements by May 1.
4. Temporary contract Bargaining Unit members are still the most vulnerable in the budget crisis. Each of the 145 members on temporary contracts will receive notice of non-renewal. The goal of the Association is to verify the reemployment of each member as soon as possible.
5. The State budget was passed pending the May 19 Special Election. President Dianne GarciaStevens will discuss how the initiatives affect the budget signed by the Governor last month and the District 2009-2010 budget.
 - Proposition 1A - Reform and Stabilize State Budget
 - Proposition 1B - Protect Education Funding (Restore Prop. 98)
 - Proposition 1C - Lottery Modernization Act
 - Proposition 1D - Children's Services Funding
 - Proposition 1E - Mental Health Funding
 - Proposition 1F - Restricts Elected Officials' Salaries
6. Voluntary Transfers requests are due May 15. Bargaining Unit members wishing to move from one site to another may consider submitting the form to Human Resources prior to the deadline.
