Returning to School Is a Personal Decision

Bargaining Unit members will be offered no less than a 3-hour block of time through Friday, May 8 to pick up personal and professional belongings from work spaces. Bargaining Unit Members are not required to go to sites. This option is for those who believe it will be in their best interest to retrieve belongings, supplies, and equipment.

Bargaining Unit members are not responsible for or recommended to gather student materials and prepare them for pick-up.

Families and students will also be given an opportunity to pick up essential educational belongings left at school. Upon request teachers will be notified of any family member or student that enters the room. District personnel will accompany those entering classrooms.

Schools will be sanitized and sealed again following the retrieval procedure. Bargaining Unit members will have an opportunity to return to schools prior to students. There is no information as to when schools will reopen.

Did Governor Newsom Announce A New School Schedule for 2020-2021?

Governor Gavin Newsom said Tuesday, April 14 that the main challenge of reopening schools will be social distancing. He then offered a couple ideas such as implementing staggered schedules and reforming physical education classes.

Any changes in schedules and working conditions will be bargained. The ideas included in the Governor’s press conference were not the plan for the State of California or the Montebello Unified School District.

The Association sends bargaining surveys and takes input prior to any negotiations.
