

The NEA Foundation Offers Grants for Educators

Student Success Grants

The NEA Foundation believes public education should stimulate students' curiosity and excitement about learning and help them become successful 21st-century learners.

If you would benefit from outside funding for classroom resources, consider applying for a grant. Two levels of grants are available $2,000 and $5,000. The next deadline for applications is February 1, 2020.

Learning & Leadership Grants

The NEA Foundation has provided funding to thousands of educators, enabling them to develop their professional practice to improve student learning. Grant funds can be used for travel, room, meals, registration fees, materials for individual grants. Two levels of grants are available $2,000 and $5,000. The next deadline for applications is February 1, 2020.

The NEA Foundation Global Learning Fellowship

Through the NEA Foundation Global Learning Fellowship, public school educators develop the knowledge and skills to integrate global competency into their daily classroom instruction, advocate for global competency in their schools, and help students to thrive in our increasingly interconnected world. Fellows transform their classrooms to give students a global perspective.

NEA Foundation Learning Fellows participate in a 12-month professional development program that includes in-person workshops, online coursework, webinars by learning experts, peer learning, and an international field study experience. The NEA foundation partners with EF Educational Tours to design transformative field study experience for Fellows.

T.I.M.E. Charter Appeals to LACOE December 10

The Board of Education denied the T.I.M.E. Charter School (TCS) Petition Wednesday, October 23. This was the second time TCS has submitted a petition to the District.

And for a second time, TCS has appealed to the Los Angeles County Office of Education. The Hearing is at 3 p.m. Tuesday, December 10. President Doug Patzkowski will speak against the appeal.
