Resolution and Clarifications to Class Size Overages in the Return to Schools 2022-2023
Memorandum of Understanding
Article VIII. Class Size
June 7, 2022

The District and the Association enter this Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") amending Article VIII. Class Size for the 2022-2023 school year.

Class Size and Case Loads

- a) For the 2022-2023 school year, effective Monday, August 15, the District shall make every effort to prevent combination classes. Where combination multi-grade classes are unavoidable, a four hundred dollar ($400) stipend per instructional month (defined as one instructional day in the MUSD Professional Learning calendar), will be paid to the following:
 - i. Bargaining Unit members teaching a general education combination class in TK through grade 5 with more than one grade level of students.
 - ii. Bargaining Unit members teaching a special education class with more than two grade levels.

- b) Effective Monday, August 22, 2022, General Education and Special Education class size and caseloads will not exceed the maximum numbers as delineated below.

- c) Up to two (2) students may be added to each setting for flexibility, in extreme cases where the numbers cannot be corrected. The following constraints will be adhered to in all cases:
1. The class size or caseload overage will not exceed ten (10) days.

2. Effective Monday, August 22, the Bargaining Unit member will be compensated by one hour per diem for each day of the overage (one to two students). For departmentalized grades 6-12 setting:
 - a. 1-3 sections with class size numbers above max, an hour per diem per day compensation
 - b. 4 more sections with class size numbers above max, 2 hours per diem per day compensation
3. The resolution of the overage will not be corrected by creating overage in another setting.

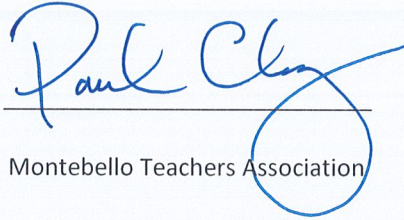

This MOU shall expire in full without precedent on June 9, 2023, unless extended by mutual written agreement.
